

THE MAIN VECTORS OF DEVELOPMENT ARE SCIENTIFIC AND RESEARCH WORK

Implementation of state-funded research and development-21-06-09 Socio-economic problems of deepening industrialization and increasing the efficiency of entrepreneurial activity in the region

THE MAIN VECTORS OF DEVELOPMENT ARE SCIENTIFIC AND RESEARCH WORK

Participation of scientists in competitions – grants to finance research:

Competition of the GF Ministry of Education and Science of the Republic of Kazakhstan

ERASMUS+ International Grant Competition

Formation of a model of a regional food hub as a horizontally integrated structure in order to ensure food security (using the example of the meat cluster of the Turkestan region). Head, PhD in Economics, Professor Abdikerimova G.I. (2021-2023)

"Economics, ecology and infrastructure of high-speed rail transport". Performer: Candidate of Economics, Associate Professor A.A. Alzhanova (2019-2022)

THE MAIN VECTORS OF DEVELOPMENT ARE SCIENTIFIC AND RESEARCH WORK

Participation of scientists in competitions – grants to finance research:

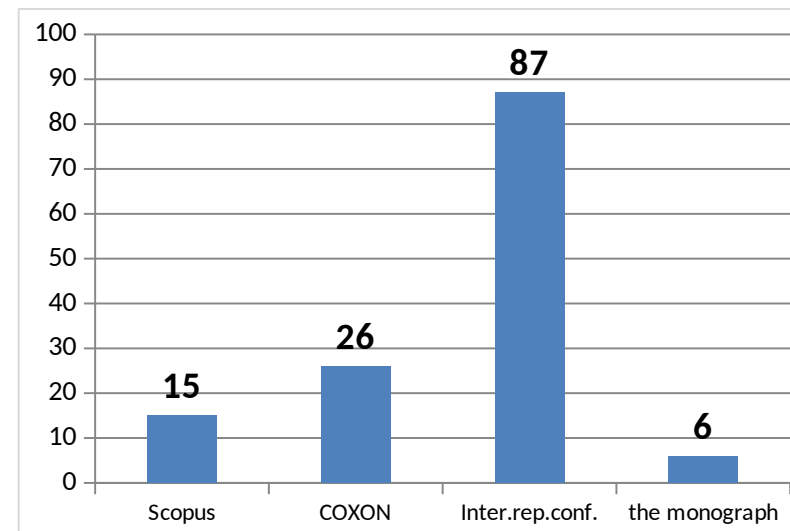

GF Competition of the Ministry of Education and Science of the Republic of Kazakhstan

AP23487689 "Development of an economic and mathematical model for improving the efficiency of natural resource use in agriculture in the Turkestan region, preventing climate change" Head, Doctor of Economics, Professor A.M. Yesirkepova (2024-2026)

THE MAIN VECTORS OF DEVELOPMENT ARE SCIENTIFIC AND RESEARCH WORK

The publication of research results for 2024.

THE MAIN VECTORS OF DEVELOPMENT ARE SCIENTIFIC AND RESEARCH WORK

The number of acts of introducing research results into production and the educational process, obtaining an author's certificate

